Space in Time

(performance, video, photography, programming, interactivity)

Space, unlike time, can be reused.

Private space, as the primary reason of this project, appears in both its concept and its place it in the exhibition space. How the private hurts us so deeply because it touches our essential core wound, it also shows our wild mortality. Interactivity between viewer and artist creates a distress motivating animating different reactions from various persons and processes of reflection / selfreflection.

Journal

(photography, book)

2007 Journal

The format of the project is a book. The quality of truthfulness and the reality of the project operate distinct cognitive responses from viewers. Interactiv dialogue is to be carried through movement and staring.

2007

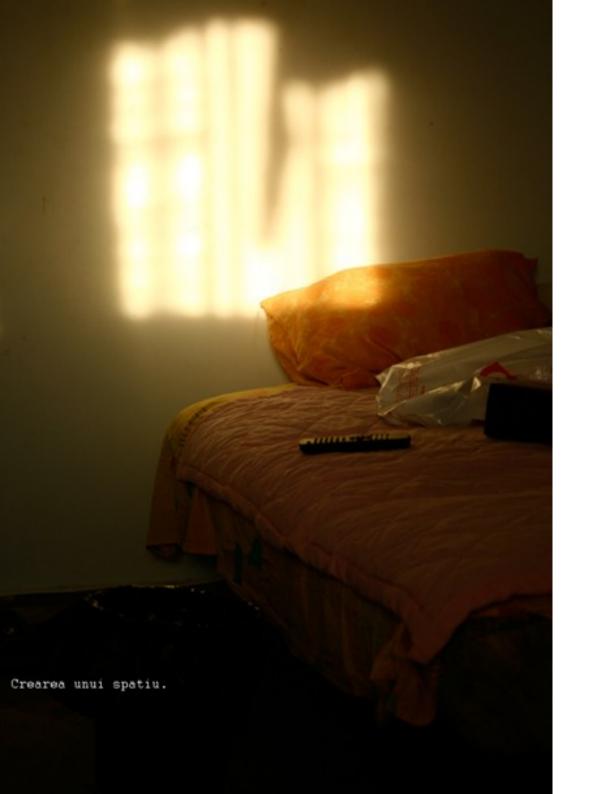

Nu, am crescut in mijlocul orașului, in centru.

Decolorata de repros, mi-am luat mainile de pe orice fel de prieten, mi le-am pus pe frunte si stau si ma gandesc: ar fi trebuit sa fiu altfel? sa fi crescut altfel? altundeva?

Nu meritam, nici eu, nici tu - nici tu, nici eu -

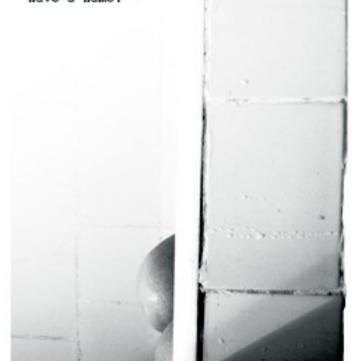

"Little boy, little boy, lost and blue, listen now, let me tell you what to do. You can run on, run along, alone or home between the knees of her; all among her bracken and her ferns and the boy will have a name."

Eu n-am vazut niciodata cum arata o casa de iepure.

Trebuie sa avem amor-propriu, cine n-are este josnic: dar nu trebuie sa savarsim nimic din amor-propriu; in ceea ce ma priveste / ne priveste( in genere ), lucrul bun sau cel putin indiferent, ajunge rau cand amorul-propiu ne indruma sa-l infaptuim.

Sa retin, prima stare a lucrurilor este intotdeauna indeosebi importanta in oscilatia rezidenta a mea in mine / a noastra in noi care se trage mai mult sau mai putin din aceasta prima stare. Sa fim ce ne cuvine sa fim. Sa ne asezam unde ne convine. Sa ne mentinem.

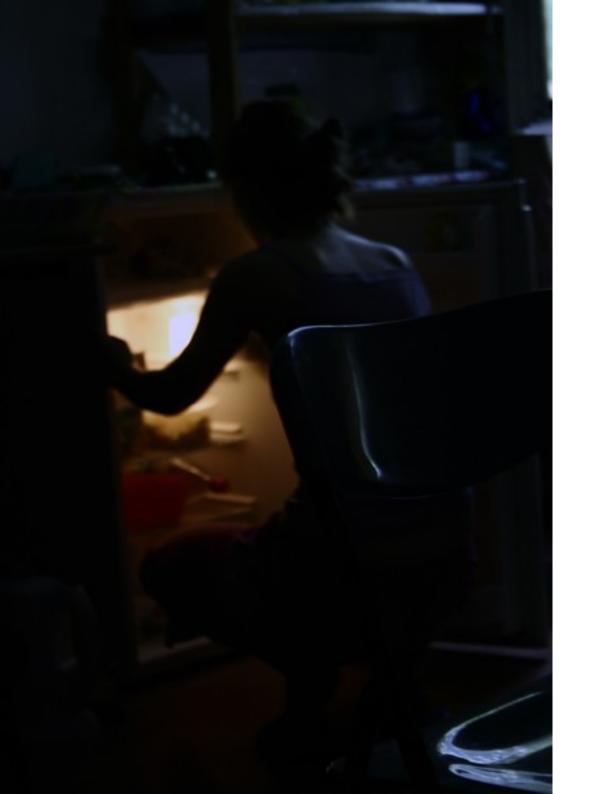

Asadar, orice s-ar intampla, vom dispune de anumite lucruri nu schimbandu-le pe ele insele ci doar stapanind impresiile ce le vor produce asupra noastra.

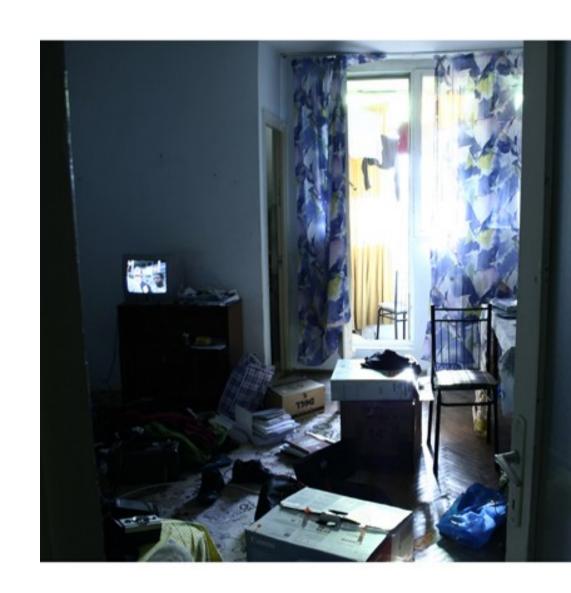

Puterea conservarii.

Prin acest mijloc, ne vom apropia , mai mult decat am putea spera prin oricare altul, de fericita permanenta / rezistenta a inteleptului.

Vom face ca orice prima dorinta, orice imorlitate / moralitate, orice izbucnire a instinctului sa devina doar un calcul, o metoda de calcul ce va intra in evaluarea noastra.

Schimba lucrurile inainte de a te schimba pe tine insuti.

Nimic nu pare sa multumeasca.

Nu pare.

Trebuie sa lucrez.

Christmas '10

(photography)

The project is a compilation of all the events from 2010' Christmas.

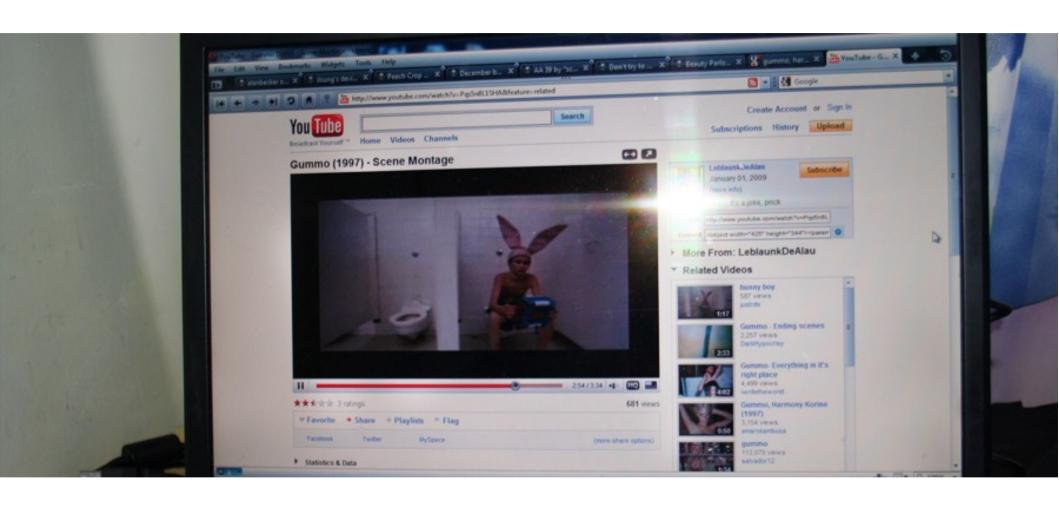

It also involves the familiar surroundings and the maybe unnoticed happenings around us.

The most important event was celebrating Christmas, but this also has lots of small moments that build the period in time, forming the loop of time in our memory.
